

We help transform brands and businesses through carefully crafted design and rigorous strategic thinking.

We specialise in brand strategy, identity design, brand communication, and digital design and development.

WHAT WE DO

We create contemporary brand identities, packaging solutions and digital experiences for a diverse range of premium brands, ranging from boutique start-ups to global businesses. Our minimal, reductive style of design allows clients to create clarity and transform their brands into powerful cross-cultural assets.

This global appeal has led me to work with discerning clients across a wide range of sectors and geographic locations.

OUR APPROACH

We approach every project with passion and dedication, applying meticulous detail, skill and craftsmanship to every stage of design and strategic process. This tailored approach is driven by clients aspirations and business objectives, allowing us to reduce the superfluous and deliver functional, enduring and effective design solutions. Our approach is informed by a combination of explorative and instinctive techniques coupled with sound strategic thinking. This contrasting perspective enables us to create consistent and measurable results whilst ensuring our work is well balanced and fit for purpose.

NOVALIS.
 Un nuovo formatissimo. Uno spazio contemporaneo e misura d'ufficio.

Eleganza informale.

Per noi edifici innovativi provengono dall'uso corretto e creativo delle risorse e materiali. Gli spazi interni sono secondo principi di efficienza e funzionalità, ma anche capaci di offrire una personalità e un'emozione che si rinnovano nel tempo. La sfida del piano è trovare il modo di integrare le esigenze di lavoro e di incontro, di mantenere e migliorare il benessere e di creare un ambiente che sia un punto di riferimento per tutti. Messimo, attraverso la ricerca e l'innovazione, ha creato una gamma di soluzioni che rispondono a queste esigenze. Il risultato è un edificio che non solo è un luogo di lavoro, ma anche un luogo di incontro e di incontro con il futuro.

Informal elegance.

In this office building, values are achieved by the efficient use of resources and materials. The internal space is based on principles of efficiency and functionality, but is also capable of offering a personality and an emotion that evolves over time. The challenge of the plan is to find the way to integrate the needs of work and of encounter, to maintain and improve the well-being and to create an environment that is a point of reference for everyone. Messimo, through research and innovation, has created a range of solutions that respond to these needs. The result is a building that is not only a place of work, but also a place of encounter and encounter with the future.

Location

At Edition, where you can be cocooned at home one moment and dining in one of the city's best restaurants the next, it's possible to feel the pulse of the city while living in a quiet residential enclave.

The boutique Parnell complex is set at the end of Churton Street, just two blocks back from the cafes, galleries, restaurants and chic boutiques of Parnell Cove. Wake a little further and you're in the Parnell Rose Gardens or Auckland Domain (with its quiet walkways, gardens and green spaces), or visiting the waterfront, open-air swimming pools and nearby food markets.

1. Wood Resonance
The building's interior is a study in natural materials, with a focus on wood. The curved wooden tables and chairs are made from sustainably sourced New Zealand kauri pine, which has a warm, golden-brown tone and a smooth, natural grain. The wood is used in a variety of ways, from large, curved tables to smaller, curved chairs, creating a sense of continuity and harmony. The wood is also used in the walls and ceiling, which are finished with a natural, light-colored stain. The result is a warm, inviting interior that feels both modern and timeless.

The Albany Rose Garden
apartments feature a range of finishes for a variety of lifestyles. For a full range of finishes, visit www.albanyrose.com.au

Every apartment is carefully designed for quality, durability and warmth. You can choose between one, two, three or prime, one four-bedroom corner apartments and choose to have a study to complete your home. The one bedroom homes come with a study as standard. Privacy between units is created through careful use of corners and balcony positioning. Many one and selected apartments are dual level and selected apartments enjoy dual balconies - one opening from the living area and another from the master bedroom. All have high quality fixtures and fittings.

The development has a unique and enviable lake front location and park like surrounds.

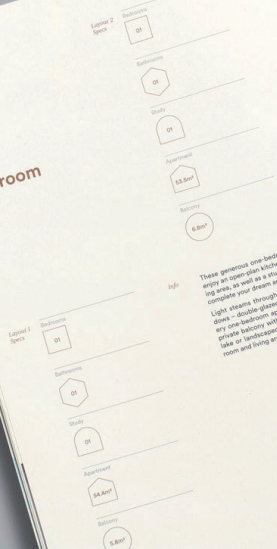

A wide, pedestrianised road with walkways runs through the development, with generous spacing between buildings to maximise sunlight and views. Resident, visitor and cycle parking is provided on site, and a comprehensive building management strategy ensures discrete and efficient servicing.

Imagine waking each morning to the sun glinting on the water, picking up a coffee from the artisan deli downstairs and walking to work via leafy footpaths. In the evening, meet with friends at restaurants, shop for the latest fashions and homewares at the Albany Mall, or catch a film. Walk your children to one of the high quality schools in the area, or wave older children off to study at the local university.

At Albany Rose Gardens, you can have it all.

One Bedroom

These generous one-bedroom apartments enjoy an open-plan kitchen, lounge and dining area, as well as a study or utility area to complete your dream apartment. Light streams through floor-to-ceiling windows - double-glazed for your comfort. Exclusive one-bedroom apartment opens onto a private balcony with stunning views over the lake or landscaped gardens from the bedroom and living area.
